

CONTEMPORARY NEW ZEALAND PAINTING 1963

FOREWORD This exhibition is a successor to those held in 1961 and 1962: a collection of serious painting in New Zealand over the past year. As with the other years the aim is to provide the public with a cross-section of contemporary work, both by the more established and by the younger artists, and indicate artistic activities in other centres beside Auckland. The exhibition represents painting in 'A November Season of the Arts' —P. A. Tomory.
