

An artwork that has no colour (monochromatic)

A painting of a flower or plant

An artwork that has words

An artwork that has repetition

An unbalanced artwork

How well did you do?

Count how many items you found and use the rating below to find your score.

Rating

1–5 = You're a Gallery wanderer!

6–10 = You're a Gallery explorer!

11–13 = Wow, you're Gallery trailblazer!

Stop by our information desk on your way out to show us how well you did!

AUCKLAND
ART GALLERY
TOI OTAMAKI

Kids Scavenger Hunt

How many of these items can you find around the Gallery?

Make sure you write down or draw a picture of what you find!

A multimedia artwork

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a multimedia artwork.

An artwork with imaginary creatures

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about an artwork with imaginary creatures.

A landscape painting

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a landscape painting.

An artwork with lights

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about an artwork with lights.

A tall artwork

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a tall artwork.

A Gallery Assistant

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a Gallery Assistant.

A sculpture

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a sculpture.

Your favourite artwork in the Gallery

A large, empty rectangular box with a red border, intended for drawing or writing about a favourite artwork. A dashed line from the pencil points towards this box.