

Toi Tū Toi Ora: Contemporary Māori Art

Toi Tū Toi Ora: Contemporary Māori Art officially opens this weekend and we have a huge line-up of free activities, performances and more to kick things off.

Programme | Sat 5 Dec

9–11am Gallery-wide	Members exclusive preview
10.45am Kitchener Street entrance	Kapa haka performance by Te Kura Kaupapa Māori o Hoani Waititi
11am Kitchener Street entrance	Gallery opens
11am–9pm Café	Special menu items designed by Kārena and Kasey Bird, winners of MasterChef New Zealand
11am–8pm Kitchener Street forecourt	Hāngi with the Hāngi Master
11am–3pm North Atrium	Whānau drop-in
11.30am–3pm Ground & Mezzanine levels	Taonga puoro music performed by Riki Bennett

12–3pm Kitchener Street forecourt	Flax flower-making with the Mai 88.6 Street Team
12pm, 1pm & 2pm Foyer	Hīkoi to Britomart Book at our information desk
1pm, 2pm & 3pm Kitchener Street forecourt	Dance performances by Atamira Dance Company
4.30pm North Atrium	Kapa haka performance by Te Kura Kaupapa Māori o Hoani Waititi
5pm East Terrace	Bar opens
5–6pm South Atrium	Spoken word poetry with Annette Morehu, Jacqueline Carter, Tayi Tibble and Ngā Hinepūkōrero
7–8.30pm East Terrace	Live music by Troy Kingi

Programme | Sun 6 Dec

9.30am–4.30pm Café	Special menu items designed by Kārena and Kasey Bird, winners of MasterChef New Zealand
10am Kitchener Street entrance	Gallery opens
11am–3pm North Atrium	Whānau drop-in
12pm Auditorium	Curator kōrero Nigel Borell and Megan Tamati-Quennell in conversation
12pm, 1pm & 2pm Foyer	Hīkoi to Britomart Book at our information desk